

6 July 1956

Meeting on Jack Bane's return.

In attendance: [redacted] (Commo), [redacted]

Mr. [redacted]

and [redacted]

(Logistics)

ETA - KLM [redacted] 9 July.

The Group discussed the pending return of Bane to the U. S. and the problems presented thereby, i. e., possible contact by [redacted] reception by Agency employees, etc. After discussing various alternatives, it was agreed that LO would advise Mrs. Bane of her husband's return and that she should restrict travel knowledge to the immediate family. Also, she would be told that Agency representatives would meet Jack in N. Y. and that Jack would probably call her from N. Y.

[redacted] would use his stand-by arrangement with [redacted] to have a Security man in N. Y. meet Bane at the plane and brief him at that time to be [redacted]

[redacted] After clearing customs, [redacted] would accompany Bane to the change of airport and plane and will, if possible, continue a briefing. [redacted] will ask Bane to call his wife, and will try to get on the same plane flight with Bane.

[redacted] will ask [redacted] to use his [redacted] and advise him of Bane's arrival and the possibility that [redacted] may receive inquiries.

After once settled in D. C., and when determined Bane can return to duty, Medics and [redacted] will be in contact with Bane.
